DEON KIPPING & NEW COVENANT - REAL LIFE. REAL WORSHIP. [★★★★ out of 5]

I'm learning how to stay off of the internet hype train. [start comments] Yo! This group is so hot, their CD is FTYA. This is the best CD I've ever heard in my life! [/end comments] For real? Yeah ok. I'll be the judge of that. I will say that I was impressed with Deon Kipping's vocals on the latest Youthful Praise project (Incredible God, Incredible Praise), and that my curiosity was peaked when I heard he was coming out with a project of his own. After hearing the CD, I'm impressed with the quality of production (excellent!), the material (writing and arrangements), and the vocals for the most part. Some of the songs played a lil longer than necessary, but even with that said, I still applaud this group on their first effort. Should there be a sophomore project, I'll probably be checking for it. PICK HITS: I Got A Reason, Not Like Me, Praise Him In Advance, Champion, So Close word that this CD was going to be released. Just like on his previous releases, CD continues to address various issues in an urban contemporary setting. The "bumpability" factor has been pushed up on this release with songs like Shake It, Tied It All and Birthday. #1 Fan and Day Off further showcase Jones' strong vocals. Secular artists Ginuwine and R. Kelly should watch out. Ok, the comparison to secular artists might be a bit much, however this brotha has what it takes to go far. Reppin Christ all the way. Check him out. PICK HITS: Fix It, Everywhere I Go, #1 Fan

JOHN P. KEE - COLOR OF MUSIC

The Color of Music is Pastor John P. Kee's 2nd solo project on the Verity Records label. It's been 10 years since Verity signed Kee and released his debut solo offering Color Blind. The Crowned Prince of Gospel is back, showcasing serious vocals and the formula of music that we all know and love. Make sure you check out the track I-C-U, that's some good singing! Features Guest Appearances By: Darkchild, Lil Rufus, LeJeune Thompson & Surrender. PICK HITS: Praise Power, In Your Name, Dancin, I Fly, I Can't Live Without You, Harvest, I-C-U, Encouraged, Never [originally posted 11.04]

JOHN P. KEE & NEW LIFE - THE REUNION

Being the John P. Kee stan that I am (Don't worry, I'm not boiling bunny rabbits or driving my car off of a cliff), I automatically wanted to give The Reunion 5 stars just because. That wouldn't be right though. While this certainly isn't a complete reunion of the New Life roster, most of the key players you're familiar with returned to make this a memorable moment in gospel history. Kee managed to take 20 years of musical history and pull together 2 discs of songs that will added to or pulled back out of the repertoires of choirs across the country. The only negative complaint this reviewer has is the consistency in the production. Overdub issues, full choir vs ensemble, use of video tracks -- entirely too much to get into now. Things were a tad busy. Even with that said, The Reunion is still the CD of the year for me. Maybe even a collector's item? Hmm. Features guest appearances by: Vanessa Bell Armstrong, Issac Caree,
