

- articles
- news
- reviews
- new releases
- charts
- message board
- search
- mailing list
- archives
- about us
- home

Youthful Praise Live! The Praise... The Worship

Youthful Praise featuring James Hairston, is back, and presents the new and fresh Live! The Praise... The Worship, an album packed —once again —with gems.

The church-based Stellar-nominated choir maintains their renowned choral excellence but executes with a freer flow, something clearly linked to the praise and worship experience.

• stellar award

“The sweeping "Incredible God, Incredible Praise" is one of those songs you just won't ever forget. Led by Deon Kipping, who co-writes with Hairston, the tune is somehow both poignant and happy —and instantly vintage.”

-reviewed by Melanie Clark

Sound Director
Hairston takes the
reigns on the lead
vocal, and steps

out to give us a window into his role as a worship leader.

"He Reigns" goes a little deeper with the choral harmonies, and equally as deep proclaiming His dominion and glory. A strong rhythmic cadence, with drums and percussion by Mike Clemmons, Rodney Kennedy and John Paul, Jr., plus punctuating horns by Mo' Horns distinguish the song.

Hairston is joined by fellow songwriting wiz, Jonathan Nelson, who pens "Shift this Place". Clearly these are two songwriters to watch over the next year or so, the duo proving to be a mighty team on this easy groove. Anaysha Figueroa hits the